- Sit only in your assigned seat

- No talking with other examinees

 - No test materials may be taken to the rest room
 - No use of any communication device at any time, even if you finish the exam early
 - Picture ID must remain face-up on the table
 - No breaks may be taken the last 5 minutes of each exam session
 - Breaks must be limited to 5 minutes
 - You must be seated the last five minutes of each exam session
1. Breaks will be permitted but limited to 5 minutes; you are not permitted to leave the test area until you are dismissed from the test session.
 2. If a break is taken do not leave exam materials at your seat.
 - a. Place all of your exam materials in your manila envelope and secure the envelope with a proctor. On Wednesday, place your answer sheet inside your MBE test booklet and secure them with a proctor.
 - b. If you are using a computer, remember to lock your screen by clicking the “Lock” button. You will be required to enter your login password upon returning to your seat.
 3. Use only those restrooms designated for use during exam sessions. Failure to comply with this restriction will preclude re-entry to the test room. No additional test time will be granted to make up for time lost during the session due to absence from the room, illness or tardiness.
 4. Do not, at any time, remove your test materials from the test room or carry your materials to the rest room.

EARLY COMPLETION OF THE EXAM. Some individuals will not require the full time allocated to complete the exam. However, the last fifteen to thirty minutes of the exam are crucial to many. Distractions during this time could mean the difference between success and failure.

If you finish the exam session early, you may secure your exam materials with a proctor and take a 5 minute break, but you must remain in the test room. Stand or sit quietly away from other examinees. After 5 minutes, retrieve your exams from your proctor and return to your seat. You must be in your seat the last 5 minutes of the session.

MULTISTATE ESSAY EXAM (MEE) AND MULTISTATE PERFORMANCE TEST (MPT).

1. A manila envelope reflecting your name and seat number will be distributed once the session begins. Do not open the envelope until told to do so. Check the label on the envelope to ensure that it reflects your name and seat number and the letters AM or PM for the respective test session.

2. The AM envelope will contain one MEE test booklet (consisting of six essay questions numbered 1 – 6) and several sheets of colored scratch paper for use in formulating your answers. Answer sheets will be included for those who are hand writing the exam. Pens will be included for all applicants.
3. The PM envelope will contain two MPT test booklets and several sheets of colored scratch paper for use in formulating your answers. Answer sheets will be included for those who are hand writing the exam.
 - a. Hand writers. The answer sheets are lined. Limit your answers to one line of writing for each printed line on the page. Do not write in the margin below the last printed line on the page.
 - b. Essay answer sheets consist of two pages stapled together as one set for each question and should not be separated. Lines are printed on 3 sides of each set. Essay answers may not exceed 3 sides of writing. Use the front and back of the first page and conclude your answer on the additional page if needed. Each essay answer sheet includes space at the top for identifying the question number and your seat number. In the event pages become separated during grading, identifying every page will ensure your complete answer is graded.
 - c. PT answer sheets consist of 3 pages stapled together as one set and should not be separated. Each answer sheet set is identified at the top with either PT-1 or PT2. Each PT answer sheet also has a space at the top of each page to write your seat number. Lines are printed on the front and back of all three pages. PT answers may not exceed six sides of writing.
4. Seat numbers and Question numbers must be clearly legible at the top of each answer sheet, as these are the only means by which your answers will later be identified for scoring. No other identifying information should appear on your answer sheets. (Computer test taker-Seat and Question numbers will automatically appear on your answers when your uploaded answers are printed from the ILG server.)
5. Spend a significant portion of your time on each question thinking about and planning your answer. Try to answer every question. Points may be acquired on a question even though your answer may be incomplete.
6. Scratch paper provided in your envelope may be used for notes in formulating your answers, but be aware that only answers written on answer sheets or printed from the secure testing software files will be graded. If the number of answer sheets submitted for any question exceeds the number of answer sheets authorized for that question (or the character limits for computer test takers) the more complete answer will be graded and the remainder will be destroyed.
7. When instructed to open your envelope, you will be asked to complete a number of tasks before the test begins. Do not break the seal on your test booklets until you are instructed to do so.

8. The average time allocated for each essay question is 30 minutes and for each Performance Test Question, 90 minutes. Questions may be answered in any order.
9. At the end of the morning and afternoon sessions all test materials, including scratch paper, test booklets and any unused answer sheets must be returned to the envelope. A proctor will collect your envelope.
10. When the signal is given that the exam session has ended, stop writing or typing immediately (even if you are in the middle of a word or sentence). Failure to stop writing or typing when the signal is given may constitute an ethical violation and could result in the nullification of your answers.
 - a. Hand Writers. Gather your answer sheets in consecutive order with Essay #1 (or MPT-1) on top. Hand written answers must be secured in the envelope when handed to your proctor. You are responsible for ensuring that:
 - 1) all answer sheets accurately reflect the question number and seat number;
 - 2) all answer sheets are submitted in the envelope for grading; and
 - 3) all test booklets, scratch paper, (including unused answer sheets), are placed in the envelope.
 - b. Computer test takers. Throughout the exam session, the software will auto-save your answers to your hard drive every minute, each time you change from one question to the next, and each time you click the "Save" button.
11. Hand the envelope to the proctor as he/she comes to your seat. All candidates must remain seated until exam materials have been collected and verified.
