

People v. Tolin, No. 02PDJ066. 8.27.02. Attorney Registration. The Presiding Disciplinary Judge approved the parties' Conditional Admission of Misconduct and suspended Respondent, Josh P. Tolin, attorney registration number 26899 from the practice of law for a period of ninety days subject to conditions in this reciprocal discipline matter from the State of Missouri. Respondent was suspended in Missouri for a period of one hundred and fifty days, sixty of which were for medical reasons. The remaining suspension arose from respondent's commingling personal funds with the funds of his clients in the law firm trust account and using the law firm trust account to wire personal funds to an attorney for respondent's personal expenditures in violation of Colo. RPC 1.15(a). The funds utilized by respondent were his own and did not belong to the firm's clients. Respondent was ordered to pay the costs of the disciplinary proceeding.
