

People v. Winslow. 06PDJ066. September 8, 2006. Attorney Regulation. The Presiding Disciplinary Judge approved a Conditional Admission of Misconduct submitted by the parties and suspended Respondent Jeffrey Philip Winslow (Attorney Registration No. 15308) from the practice of law for a period of ninety days; sixty days stayed upon the successful completion of a two-year period of probation, with conditions, effective October 9, 2006. On May 21, 2004, Respondent was suspended from the practice of law pursuant to C.R.C.P. 260.6(10) for non-compliance with CLE requirements. On August 19, 2005, he was suspended from the practice of law pursuant to C.R.C.P. 227 for failure to pay annual attorney registration fees. Thereafter, Respondent actively continued practicing law throughout the period of his administrative suspension despite receiving the orders of suspension. His misconduct constituted grounds for the imposition of discipline pursuant to C.R.C.P. 251.5 and violated Colo. RPC 5.5(a) and 3.4(c). No current or former clients filed a request for investigation or suffered any adverse result as a consequence of Respondent's misconduct and he fully cooperated with the investigation initiated by the Office of Attorney Regulation Counsel.
